ASSISTED LIVING

Open House

112 Harris Way
Hortonville, WI

Plan ahead and be prepared!

Choosing the right assisted living facility is a big decision, and not one you want to make when you're faced with an immediate need. Plan ahead. Finding the right place doesn't have to be intimidating. By exploring your options and being prepared, you have a lot less to worry about – and a lot more to look forward to.
